

Duarte Historical Museum Free Speaker Series

The Harvey Girls: Civilizers of the Wild West

These young women served food at the railroad depots as the Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe Railroad was expanding westward. The historical Harvey Houses were an oasis of comfort and civilization along the railway routes of the Southwest

By

Lynne Miller

Member, The Harvey Girl Historical Society

Sunday, July 21, 2024

3:00 PM

Light refreshments to follow

Duarte Historical Museum, 777 Encanto Parkway, Duarte, CA 91010